Copy trading on Deriv cTrader guide

Are you a pro trader confident in your strategy? Don't just trade for yourself—let others copy you and get your income! With Deriv cTrader's copy trading, you effortlessly turn your expertise into potential earnings.

Trade. Others copy. You earn.
More followers mean higher earnings.

Quick & easy setup

1. Open a Deriv cTrader account.
2. Start with a demo ($10,000 virtual funds) or live trading ($5 minimum deposit).
3. Set up your profile, showcase your strategies, and track performance with advanced analytics.
4. Attract followers with verifiable metrics like ROI, trading history, and risk levels.

Earn With Your Skills

Performance Fees: Earn up to 30% of followers' net profits (High-Water Mark model)

Management Fees: Charge up to 10% annually on your investors' equity

Volume Fees: Get up to $10 per million copied trading volume

Tools & Protection

Equity Stop Loss: Automatically stops copying if your balance drops too low.

Total Transparency: Choose to show or hide open positions for complete control.

Monitor your commissions, investor count, and copied trade volume all in one place.
